

Special Bulletin

February 22, 2017

To all OSSTF/FEESO members

Contract extension and Bill 115 remedy discussions to resume today

As was reported in the Special Bulletin issued February 16, 2017, the Provincial Executive, after consulting with the Teacher/Occasional Teacher and Support Staff Ad Hoc Advisory Work Group, authorized the Associate General Secretary of Protective Services, the Director of Negotiations/Contract Maintenance and appropriate staff to enter into exploratory discussions with representatives of the provincial government to determine if there is common ground to return to negotiations regarding a possible contract extension and Bill 115 remedy.

Those exploratory discussions have taken place, and it has been determined that negotiations should resume. Those negotiations will be taking place today, February 22 and tomorrow, February 23.

Members will be notified through a special bulletin about the outcome of these talks.
